Justin Gowan is an associate in the firm's Business Transactions practice group. His practice focuses on advising clients throughout a variety of real estate and corporate transactions, including drafting purchase and sale agreements, business formation and entity documents, and other commercial real estate documents.

Justin also has experience handling commercial litigation, construction litigation, and real estate litigation matters, where he has drafted motions, briefs and conducted pre-trial discovery; drafted demand letters; represented clients in arbitration; and negotiated settlements on behalf of clients. He has also represented clients in proceedings before the Arizona Registrar of Contractors.

Prior to attending law school, Justin spent five years working in retail banking, where he assisted both individuals and businesses.
