

Corporate Services & Securities

Our corporate and securities attorneys provide a wide range of services on behalf of private and public corporations in the U.S. and abroad. We assist with all corporate needs related to structuring and formation, transactions, finance and securities, operational issues, board matters, compliance and tax. Our clients range from major international corporations to entrepreneurial start-ups, and we have depth of experience with a broad range of corporate structures, joint ventures, partnerships, franchises and not-for-profit organizations.
